Biography

Vana Campbell

Vana Campbell was born in Canberra and studied classical ballet, contemporary, jazz and flamenco under Janet Karin and Bryan Lawrence.

She was accepted into the Australian Ballet School and graduated in 1974.

She performed as soloist in ballet companies overseas including Frankfurter Ballett Bühne, Germany.

Ms Campbell returned to Australia, married and raised three children whilst teaching at Jill McHugh's Ku-ring-gai School of Dance since 1993.

She joined the Tanya Pearson Classical Coaching Academy faculty in 2000, teaching both Grade and Majors level students and was appointed Principal of the Junior School in 2007.
